Why Join Florida ARF?

Kevin Johnson
Florida ARF Board Chair

“Florida ARF brings immense value to providers through its dedicated staff who advocate on behalf of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities, and those that support them, with lawmakers and policymakers in Tallahassee while also supporting providers to navigate the complex regulatory environment providers must navigate. Florida ARF meetings, webinars, and conference calls allow fellow providers to connect, express concerns, share best practices and models, and propose solutions to many of the complex problems that face Floridians with disabilities. I am grateful for the support, guidance, and camaraderie that the association provides its members.”

Community Supports

Clint Bower, Chair
President & CEO
MACtown, Inc.

The mission of the Community Supports Forum is to advance the goals and issues of community agencies that serve people who need support with daily living activities, particularly for individuals with intellectual disabilities. This Forum deals with service issues providers face on a daily basis such as Medicaid Waiver policy and other changes in service delivery systems.

The role of the Community Supports Forum is to provide the membership of Florida ARF the latest information and guidance as we [the members] collectively strive to serve people in an ever-changing environment. Participation in this forum is vital to all agencies ability to survive these challenging times and to learn from the expertise of all the members and from the external resources that contribute to the process of information sharing.” Clint Bower, 18-year member
The mission of the Employment Issues Forum is to “provide a venue for the exchange and discussion of ideas and issues relating to the operation of programs by community agencies for the job training, placement, retention, and advancement of people with significant barriers to employment.” The forum addresses policies, best practices, industry innovations and advocacy issues through issue statements, training, action agendas, and impact analysis.

“Florida ARF provides organizations that serve people with disabilities the opportunity to network, collaborate, and discuss best operational procedures and practices. Florida ARF ensures there is a collective voice in sponsoring public policy change, change meant to promote and advocate for choice, independence, and inclusion for people with disabilities.” Karenne Levy, 17-year member
The Government Relations Forum is responsible for the packaging and delivering of Florida ARF’s annual legislative and executive branch platform. Additionally, the Government Relations Forum provides a grassroots advocacy program to help members educate their legislators.

“In a world of increased regulation and decreased funding; advocacy, education, and support are needed now more than ever. Florida ARF provides all this and more to individuals with disabilities and to the support agencies that serve them. The Government Relations Forum works to align the energy of the membership into an effective legislative platform, seeking all the while to educate members and those they serve in becoming effective advocates to our elected officials both State and National.” Steven DeVane, 9-year member
The mission of the Intermediate Care Facilities for Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities (ICF/IID) Forum is to promote quality of care available for individuals with severe disabilities who cannot live independently. The ICF/IID forum addresses issues that affect residential facilities licensed and certified in accordance with state law and certified by the Federal Government as providers of Medicaid services to persons who are intellectually disabled.

“The individuals we serve have benefited in countless ways due to the advocacy and leadership of Florida ARF. As members, we are proud of this legacy as well as respectful of the ongoing responsibility to maintain Florida ARF’s role as the premiere organization in our field.” Jim Weeks, 39-year member
RESPECT Oversight

Stephen Bailey, Chair
Executive Director
CARC

The RESPECT Oversight Committee provides direction and guidance to the RESPECT program to ensure that governmental agencies within the State of Florida obtain quality products and services produced by persons with disabilities. Under the trade name "RESPECT of Florida," thousands of job opportunities have been created over three decades by community agencies.

“The RESPECT of Florida program provides a wide variety of employment opportunities to individuals with disabilities. RESPECT provides high quality services and commodities throughout the state of Florida at competitive prices. As an employment center participating in the RESPECT program, we have expanded the skills learned, the employment opportunities available, and increased wages to individuals in the program.” Stephen Bailey, 8-year member
